

About CCIRC

The Cultural Council of Indian River County was founded in 1995 to promote the cultural arts in Indian River County through education, collaboration, marketing, and advocacy; to enrich the lives of the people in our County, both residents and visitors, through the arts and cultural experiences; and to promote cultural tourism through the popular and abundant arts and culture available in our County.

Our members include:

- ~ Fine Arts Artists, Galleries & Museums
- ~ Art Education Organizations
- ~ Literacy Organizations, Authors & Writers
- ~ Classical Orchestras, Symphonies & Opera
- ~ Chorale, Jazz & Blues Societies
- ~ Dance & Ballet
- ~ Speakers & Lecturer Series
- ~ Environmental & Historical Organizations
- ~ Theatre

Our programs include:

- ~ Art in Public Places - exhibiting in 6 venues in the county
- ~ Cultural Connections - promoting local arts organizations
- ~ Emerging Artists - promoting new young artists
- ~ Cultural Arts Guide - distributed locally & state-wide
- ~ Strengthening historical prevalence through partnerships with the WWII Tribute and the Gifford African American Cultural Center and Museum
- ~ and much more...

The Cultural Council of Indian River County is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization and must raise 75% of its funding from private sources annually. These funds underwrite programs such as art education, advocacy, cultural art services, as well as cultural art marketing and promotion of the county as a cultural tourism destination.
